

LONDON-MIDDLESEX

Suicide Prevention Council

MEMBER/VOLUNTEER APPLICATION

The London-Middlesex Suicide Prevention Council (LMSPC) is a not-for-profit comprised of individuals and organizations that deliver suicide prevention, support and/or treatment programs or services in London and Middlesex County. It has been in existence since 1990.

The Council aims to: “reduce suicide and suicidal behavior, and its impact on individuals, families and communities” by:

- * Providing public awareness, community education, and advocacy in regards to suicide risk and prevention.
- * Providing opportunities for skill development that addresses suicide awareness, intervention, support, and treatment.
- * Supporting the appropriate allocation of resources to support a full range of consumer-centered services to individuals and families.
- * Addressing stigma and discrimination experienced by individuals who have attempted suicide or the family members of those who have died by suicide.
- * Promoting and supporting collaboration among service providers.
